Dr. Biao Lu has been practicing acupuncture since 1984. As a special privilege for being the top student in his class, he was awarded the chance to study specialized acupuncture techniques with several world-renowned acupuncturists – professor Zheng Kui Shan, with whom he further refined his acupuncture techniques, and Professor Yang Jiao San, one of the premier acupuncturists in China who was featured in Bill Moyer’s “Healing and the Mind” program on PBS. During this time, he learned special acupuncture techniques known as “Setting the Mountain on Fire” and “Penetrating Heaven’s Coolness” – two techniques rarely practiced in the West, but are extremely effective for immunological and neurological disorders, as well as all types of pain conditions that have not been alleviated through other healing modalities. Before coming to Los Angeles, Dr. Lu was the Chief Acupuncture Physician at Dong Zhi Men Hospital in Beijing. He is also an expert in Qi Gong healing. Dr. Lu started teaching at Yo San University 20 years ago, and he also a professor at Emperor’s College Doctoral program. He has been lecturing nationwide and is a well-known practitioner and professor.
