COURSE DESCRIPTION

Jade Woman Qi Gong is a beautiful and flowing form of movement therapy that address the special needs of women’s physical and emotional health. By targeting specific acupuncture meridians related to the purification and strengthening of the blood supply. Jade Woman Qi Gong is especially effective in treating gynecological conditions from menstruation to fertility to menopause. Although designed for women, Jade Woman Qi Gong can benefit anyone who suffers from circulation problems, seeks enhanced energy and is interested in learning about and/or treating women’s health conditions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This course is designed to prepare students to understand that the phases of a woman’s life require a plentiful supply of blood to assure normal gynecological function. At the end of the class, the students will be able to practice this specific Qigong designed for women to purify their blood and increase their blood supply. Also, the students will be able to utilize some movements to treat female patients.
