COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines the ethical issues surrounding licensed practice in the field of TCM. Course topics include standards of medical ethics, ethical issues, legal issues, peer review and the rules and regulations relating to the practice of acupuncture and Oriental medicine with an emphasis on California Acupuncture Laws.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, the students will become familiar with the standards of medical ethics, ethical issues, legal aspects and the laws and regulations relating to the practice of Acupuncture.

COURSE PREREQUISITIES

Successful Completion of the Pre-Clinical Written Exam; Practice Management I

REQUIRED TEXTS

Laws and Regulations Relating to the Practice of Acupuncture, July 2019 Issued by the California Acupuncture Board.

https://www.acupuncture.ca.gov/pubs_forms/laws_regs/laws_and_regs.pdf

Additional class handouts for review and PowerPoint links on pertinent topics will be provided by instructors.

Classroom lectures represent the instructor’s emphasis and focus on certain aspects of the course material. The student is responsible for the assigned readings.

RECOMMENDED TEXTS

For Your Own Knowledge & Future Resources:

1. Knowledge of your California Assembly Person and California State Senator
2. Knowledge of your Federal Representative in Congress and Federal Senator

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Out-of-Class Work
To successfully complete the program, students need to plan studying a minimum of 2 hours out-of-class for each academic in-class hour; and half an hour out-of-class for each hour of clinical training.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Choose and read one article, report, study related to a topic regarding medical ethics as it relates to the Acupuncture Profession; then prepare a 5-minute oral report to the class on its content, and your understanding of the material and/or the ethical issues which arise from that reading/study (40% of class grade). This presentation serves as the course mid-term and should be prepared to present by WEEK 5 Mid-term week of the class.

Course Grading: 10% attendance/participation; 40% class topic presentation; 50% Final Exam

GRADING SCALE: 100-90% A, 89-80% B, 79-70% C, 69% and below F
SPECIAL NOTES

Professionalism and Full and Prompt Attendance:  To pass any course (separate from academic performance) all students must meet requirements for professionalism in coursework.  Professionalism includes full and prompt attendance:  Students who miss more than 2 class meetings in a 10-week course will earn an F in that course.  Additionally, students who arrive more than 5 minutes to class or leave class before it ends will be marked tardy.  Two tardies equal one absence.  NOTE: Students who leave and return to class late from a break or leave during the class (especially if this is repeated) or who disrupt the class in other ways may be referred to the Academic Dean for professionalism.
